ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Though only my name appears on the cover of this dissertation, many people have contributed to its production. I owe my gratitude to all those people who have made this dissertation possible and because of whom my graduate experience has been one that I will cherish forever. I would like to express the deepest appreciation to the following persons whose significant contributions have made this work possible.

My first and foremost gratitude is to the lord almighty for bestowing his blessing, kindling the light in me so that I could accomplish my task successfully.

My deepest gratitude is to my guide Prof. Thomas Vadaya, Professor of Education, School of Science and Education, Navrachana University, Vadodara, whose unstinting support and valuable ideas helped me to complete this work. Indeed his sustained guidance, help and encouragement has been a source of strength for me to carry out my work. I pay my gratitude to him for which I have no adequate words to express.

I thank Dr. P.V. Xavier, principal, School of Science and Education, Navrachana University, for providing me academic and administrative support.

I thank all the faculty of School of Science and Education, Navrachana University, who directly or indirectly have contributed towards my work.

I would like to thank all my peers for their constant support and friendly guidance and help.

I express my deep heartfelt gratitude to the principal Ms. Usha Joseph of the school who has rendered her valuable suggestions and encouragement during the period of research. I am also immensely grateful to the school staff members and the students of grade V, VI and VII for their adjustment and cooperation maintained during the period of collecting data.

I am very much grateful to the teachers Ms. Valli Pillai, Ms. Mandira Sikdar and Ms. Archana Tomar for helping in validating the tool for the study.

I also take this opportunity to thank my family members who have always been a great support to me none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. My immediate family, to whom this dissertation is dedicated to, has been a constant source of love, concern, support and strength all year. I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my family. Special thanks to Ms. Cija Thomas who helped me with valuable suggestions for the study.

I take this opportunity in expressing thanks to the teachers of Navrachana University for their continued help and encouragement. They have always been there to solve any kind of difficulties faced by students during the research process.
